What Your Neighbors Say about Dwayne Voegeli

"Dwayne has been guided through out his life with an unrelenting passion for service to others. He is a fierce advocate for access to mental health services, believes in a woman's right to choose, and affordable health care coverage for everyone. With his experience in elected office, he'll be ready to go on Day One."

Former DFL State Senator Sharon Ropes.

"Dwayne Voegeli will care deeply for the residents of 26A. Dwayne will legislate as he teaches, with an open door, a listening ear and a commitment to learning."

Katy Smith, Winona Teacher of the Year. MN Teacher of the Year.

"Working with Dwayne to resettle refugees in Winona through the Winona Sheltering Network, I've come to know his leadership well. Dwayne is among the most compassionate well. Dwayne is among the most compassionate people in our community giving selflessly to make life better for others, while maintaining a practical approach to getting things done quickly and effectively."

Nikki Civettini, WSU Sociology Professor

Robert and I have been friends and colleagues of Dwayne for many years. We know him to be honest, trustworthy, persistent in working for the good of all, especially to those most in need, and will work creatively to serve others, not himself, if elected.

Kathy and Robert Redig, rural Winona.

Dwayne Voegeli has shown over and over again that he has both strong principles and a genuine interest in other points of view. That is a rare combination in a public servant this day and age.

Jack Hedin. Farmer.

Dwayne has proven himself to be an engaging teacher, excellent County Commissioner, caring community member, and a true leader. He has my enthusiastic support to be my State Representative.

Mark Peterson, Mayor of Winona (2013 - 2020).

"Dwayne Voegeli is our candidate for MN House 26A because he supports high quality, well-funded education at all levels - from pre-K through Higher Ed! He is a trusted 28-year educator and advocate for students and communities across the District."

James and Nancy Reynolds, Goodview.

"I have known Dwayne for almost 25 years. In all of that time, no year has passed in which Dwayne was not working towards making our community more liveable and its citizens more involved. He has done this as a schoolteacher, he has done it as a member of the Winona County Board, and he has done it with numerous charitable organizations. Dwayne is relentless and tireless when it comes to pursuing changes that will make Winona County a better place to live."

Carew Halleck, Winona business owner.

"Seeing Dwayne's service to our community, the work he does at Winona Senior High, and the leadership he brings to the Winona County Board, I am proud to support and vote for Dwayne Voegeli."

Tony Bruguier, a member - WSU College Dems.

"In his ten years of experience in public office Dwayne Voegeli has exhibited talents that will make him an excellent representative of our interests in St. Paul. He is scrupulously honest, has a deep understanding of the district and a commitment to protecting the environment, listens well, and is sincerely dedicated to improving the lives of others.

Former DFL State Senator Steve Morse.

Dwayne is an award-winning educator with a passion for kids and our public schools. I have witnessed the positive and professional support he provides to his students in their own journey for learning! Imagine what he can do for us all at the Capitol!

Luke Merchlewitz, Retired WK Teacher. Winona Teacher of the Year.

"It is urgent for the MN legislature to support public education and equitable access to higher education. As our representative, Dwayne Voegeli will fight for education programs that will continue to improve our communities. He is a successful public servant of SE Minnesota who truly cares about working for the greater good."
